

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, August 22, 2002

Clarion Ledger, Jackson

Let jail pact stand, Moore urges court

Appeals put hold on Ayers funding

Close ties ... not a surprise

1 in 4 teachers 'out of field'

No united front for tort reform panel

Students in core courses down by 359

More West Nile infected birds found

Online gaming OK, but not here

Job fair aiming to keep talent in state

Editorials

Water: Farm Bill helps fill a crucial need

Diversity: Nissan hiring sets an example

Fondren: Police substation a good move

Speeders: Jackson autobahn roaring away!

The Sun Herald, Biloxi

Lee County gets second Nissan supplier

Warship contract means new jobs

Republican women: 'Run, Haley, run'

House panel loads up tort-reform ideas

Mississippi's doctors suffer as MACM strays from its purpose

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal, Tupelo

House panel OKs tort caps, vote not to meet with Senate

A second Nissan supplier coming to Saltillo

Mississippi schools to vie for role in new technology program

EDITORIAL: Mississippi positioned for big leap forward

The Commercial Appeal, Memphis

2 reports coming to Musgrove on tort changes

Hattiesburg American, Hattiesburg

Mississippi ACT scores rise slightly

Laurel Leader-Call, Laurel

Grant to aid those who lost jobs in plant closings

MDOT to conduct timed hurricane evacuation drill

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register, Clarksdale

The Bolivar Commercial, Cleveland

JUDGES: Constitution? What constitution?

Enterprise Journal, McComb
Musgrove makes afternoon visit to armory

Delta Democrat Times, Greenville

The Greenwood Commonwealth, Greenwood
Musgrove submits projects to DRA
Irvin's exodus most unwelcome
DRA exec braces for political fight

The Natchez Democrat, Natchez
Tort reform only part of project
Read Our View

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times